

Tennis Practice Will Commence Next Wednesday

Only Three Lettermen To Return; Fogleman Forms Badminton Club

After an informal meeting of the varsity tennis candidates, Coach Harry Fogleman announced that regular tennis practice will start on Wednesday, March 11, with three lettermen from the 1941 squad ready to report. Bob Wilson will captain this year's netmen.

Last Year's Frosh Promising

With lettermen Bob Wilson, Ray Nasher, and Fred Bynum ready for active duty, the 1942 tennis team will have the support of several promising players from last year's freshman team, which include such potential stars as Harold Soule and Nathan Smith.

Robert Antoine, a letterman two years ago but out of action last year, will also be at the opening session. Fogleman stated that Jim Walters, a junior, will also be seeking a berth on the net squad.

Badminton Club Starts

Coach Fogleman also announced the formation of a new campus organization, the Badminton Club, which will not compete in intercollegiate competition, but will merely function as a campus club.

The badminton group is planning to join the Southern association, which is affiliated with the National Badminton association. The group plans to play two nights each week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 7 to 8:30 o'clock. There will be small membership dues.

Davidson Exhibition

All those who watched the badminton match between Ken Davidson and Hugh Forgie between halves of the Duke-Carolina basketball game last week were extremely enthusiastic over the exhibition.

To prove that badminton is an up-and-coming sport in the U. S., Davidson played to a crowd of 19,000 at Madison Square Garden recently. In short, he has made America badminton-conscious. Today more than 100,000 Americans are playing the game. And now the sport, through Coach Fogleman's efforts, is to be put on an extensive scale at Duke.
