Dear Tournament Participants:

Personally, and on behalf of our Top Flight Club membership, we are delighted to have you all here to compete in our 24th Annual Top Flight Tournament.

Our mission is to ensure that you have an enjoyable time and will be able to play to the best of your ability. Each club member is dedicated to this mission and will always be available to assist in any manner possible. In time of need please feel free to call upon any one of us.

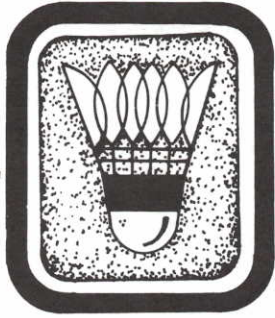

We all hope this will be a competition that will stand out in your memories and cause you to wish to return next year.

On Saturday evening at approximately 6:00 p.m. the club membership, under the direction of hostess Sharon Frady, will offer delightful refreshments to all athletes. Entertainment will be furnished by the exciting and entertaining Peter, Paul and Morrie trio featuring our Top Flighter Tom Lucas. Competition will resume at approximately 7:00 p.m. and continue until Saturday play is completed. Sunday play should be completed by early afternoon, if a second day becomes necessary.

Best of good fortune to you all.

Dear Participant:

Welcome to Omaha, Nebraska and Offutt Air Force Base. It 's great to have you here and competing in the 24th Annual Ray Scott Open tournament. Your sojourn here will be enjoyable and rewarding. You will meet new friends and renew acquaintances. Have fun!

Top Flight is continuing, as part of our promotion of badminton, a novice class for this tournament. It's been successful for us and other tournaments. New, less skilled players can take part in the competition, physical activity and ... fun.

I hope each of you take your enthusiasm for badminton back home and get new players interested in the Olympic sport of badminton.

Also, I hope that you will consider coming back again next year for the silver anniversary of the Ray Scott Open. It promises to be a very special event.

If you need assistance while you are here, please ask myself or one of the Top Flight members.

Sincerely,

Bob Ericson
President

KENNETH R. DAVIDSON

MEMORIAL AWARD FOR SPORTSMANSHIP

To every sport there comes, eventually, someone whose skills and dedication to that sport make him or her a dominant world figure and entitle that person to be called a "great" in their field. Ken Davidson was a 'great' figure in badminton. His untimely death in an air crash Christmas morning of 1954 in Prestwick, Scotland, was a stunning blow, and a deep loss to the world of badminton. This tragedy ended the career of a man whose skill covered all phases of badminton. He was a champion amateur player, a beloved professional entertainer, an authoritative writer and world renowned coach. Much of the current interest in badminton in this country is a reflection of the spirit of Ken Davidson's untiring efforts to promote interest and participation in the sport.

Ken Davidson came to this country from England in 1935 as a representative of General Sportcraft Company, Ltd. He was then an internationally known cricketer as well as a badminton player. Among his badminton honors, he held British and European titles, and was Captain of the Scottish International Team. Before turning professional he captured singles, doubles and mixed doubles titles in the United States tournaments.

Ken's amazing skill and versatility on the courts eventually led to his performing in exhibition matches throughout this country. His most famous partner being the Canadian, Hugh Forgie. It was then that Ken Davidson added his sense of humor and showmanship to his remarkable ability with the racquet and developed their great comedy act. With Hugh and subsequent partners, Ken regaled audiences all over the world with his clowning tactics. He brought audiences cheering to their feet from Radio City and the Roxy to the London Palladium. He later participated in a command performance before the Royal Family of England.

Coaching was the next phase of his favorite sport. He coached and managed the first two United States Thomas Cup teams, and he was scheduled for this position again in 1955. Just before his death, Ken had completed a highly successful Asiatic tour with Judy Devlin and Margaret Verner. This high regard that foreign officials and players held for Ken Davidson made him an invaluable goodwill ambassador for badminton.

In honor of Ken Davidson, the American Badminton Association in 1955 initiated an annual Ken Davidson Memorial Award. It is awarded to the player in this country who is judged to have contributed the most to badminton and whose sportsmanship, attitude, and achievement best exemplify the spirit of badminton held in such high esteem by Ken Davidson himself.
