From the Editor's Desk-

Have you ever noticed the way a draw sheet acts like a magnet at tournaments? Players will go to it before they may even greet their fellow players. Initial comments then run something like this: "They sure drew all these out of the hat!" . . . or "Here I traveled all those miles just to play my doubles partner in the first round!"

I recently received a letter which suggests a method which might relieve such headaches for Tournament Directors and also give our National Ranking Committee more concrete evidence of the ability of players from the various regions of the U.S. John Cornell, Chairman of the Seeding and Draw for the Ninth Open Championships, writes:

"A number of unpleasant things have been said about the IBF 'Regulations for Seeding and Draw' and other regulations involved in a National Tournament. As Chairman of the Seeding and Draw, I did not look forward with pleasure to applying these rules. However, as we worked with the rules, I found them much more fair than a random draw with a large number of foreign and national 'protected' players (we assumed all nationally ranked players to be 'protected'). Although only a very limited number of players can be seeded, all 'protected' players are placed so that they will not meet a 'protected' player from the same country in the same bracket (if there are 2 such players, then in the same half; if 4, then in the same quarter). Of course, if the player is not 'protected' by the national association he may meet a compatriot in the first round. made a mistake of not filling the middle brackets completely, but this was in mechanics, not concept.

One suggestion for future tournaments. The United States is so large that players from one region very seldom regularly play outside of their regions. Might it not be desirable for ranked players to be considered from each region (as a separate country) so that they would not immediately play a regular opponent?"

John Cornell's suggestion might well be an appropriate proposal for consideration of the ABA Directors Annual Meeting in 1963. What do you think?

Why not make your wishes known to your regional ABA Director? A formal proposal could then be submitted by him to the ABA Secretary prior to the time of the Annual Meeting in April 1963.

NEXT DEADLINE FOR BIRD CHATTER NEWS December 1, 1962

ABA REPORT

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Greetings and best wishes to all A.B.A. members at the start of the new season for 1962-1963.

During the summer, the A.B.A. Officers and many of the A.B.A. Committee Chairmen have been active and have given me wonderful support. "The pot has been kept boiling." During the off season, in my opinion, there have been some worthwhile accomplishments. We have also held Directors meetings, one on matters not finalized at Indiantown Gap, another to approve the appointment of Jim Wigglesworth as a director, and a third to approve the appointments of most of the committee chairmen.

One of the proposals put forth by the Committee on Reorganization, headed by Charlie Newhall, is that the various standing committees of the A.B.A. be divided up and assigned for direction and aid to the vice presidents. This project has been seriously considered by the officers during the summer, and it is expected that it will be implemented and put into operation very shortly. A few of the key committees will be handled by me and the balance divided up between Al Laubinger and Waldo Lyon for help and guidance. Such a move will serve to permit the president to give attention to other important matters, to Have Racquet, Will Travel!

Europe, Here We Come Again!

by HANS ROGIND

World traveler take note. Plans are under way for another Badminton trip to Europe. The last trip took place in the late summer of 1958 and it was most gratifying to learn that this unique venture was considered a great success by all the travelers and a fine contribution to international goodwill.

This time we will leave the United States on August 11, 1963 by jet on a regular scheduled airline and return September 1, just before Labor Day, which should allow teachers and students to be back in time for school openings.

Eight European Cities

We will be leaving New York for Shannon and then on to Dublin, London, Paris, Amsterdam, the Haag, Bonn, Copenhagen, Malmo, Oslo and back to New York. We will have an average of three days in each of these cities, which will give us ample time for both badminton, sightseeing, shopping, relaxation and just plain fun.

The price tag for this dream trip is $696.00 per person which includes good, standard hotel accommodations in twin bedded rooms with private bath, where available; most meals, which means breakfast and a choice of either lunch or dinner. Furthermore, all transportation to and from badminton matches, sightseeing trips in every city, transportation to and from airports and all tips are included. All traveling between the cities will this time take place on scheduled airlines, although in Germany we will arrive in Bonn, the capital of West Germany, via Hamburg and Cologne, and from Cologne we will take a two hour steamboat ride down the famous Rhine to Bonn. The entrance to Bonn from this waterway is beautiful beyond description.

The arrangements for our badminton matches in Europe are under way at the time of this writing, but we will be able to give you most of these details in the next issue of "Bird Chal-ter." However, there is good reason to believe that, among other places, we will be playing at Wimbledon in England, where the famous All-England takes place every year. In Copenhagen and Oslo, you will be playing at the most modern badminton clubs in the world - green curved ceilings, green floors, no light shining in your eyes and the bird standing out like a football—no excuses for missing it! And you don't have to be a top player. Class B, C, and D players are encouraged to attend. Matches will be arranged for you against players of your own ability in each city where we play. Any arranged match will take place in the evening so it doesn't have to interfere with your sightseeing or shopping activities.

You Don't Have to Play Badminton to Go

If you are more interested in seeing and learning more about the countries visited than participating in the matches, you are entirely free to do as you please. As a matter of fact, if you should prefer not to participate in other planned group activities, or if you want to visit or stay with friends, etc., you may also do that.

You will be introduced to many new friends in all these cities by the help of our games. The hospitality and friendliness received last time was fabulous. Their eagerness to help you feel at home, and the parties after the games were many and far into the wee wee hours of the nights.

This tour is an approved People-to-People Sports Activity and gives us all the opportunity of creating friendships and understanding among the World Nations through our own hobby which is the basic thought behind former President Eisenhower's People-to-People program.

Financing

Financing of this tour is provided for those who do not wish to pay cash.

We have a terrific plan through the Travel Agency which has set up a "go now, pay later" plan with a total down payment of $200.00, or you can also arrange it on a "pay now, go later" plan in which you pay a set amount every month or bi-monthly from now until D-day, August 11, 1963. Whichever way you want to do it, with this advance notice, there is no excuse for not saving your pennies — starting RIGHT NOW.

If you, your wife, husband, or friends would like to go on this wonderful European trip, play badminton as you go, represent your country on as well as off the court and have a whale of a time all you have to do is to contact Mrs. Grace Devlin, Owings Mills, Md., or Hans Rogind at 841 Farmdale, Ferndale, Mich., and either would be delighted to send you further details with application forms, etc.

The tour is based on the new transatlantic group-rate and will necessitate a minimum of 25 persons, and we would prefer to keep it below 40. All the preliminary work has been laid so all we need now is your reactions. Let's hear from you soon.

Three Weeks Badminton Vacation in Eight European Countries

10th U.S. NATIONAL OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS

Mrs. Joanne H. Hessey, a Director of the American Badminton Association and Past President of the Maryland Badminton Association, will serve as General Chairman of the 1963 U. S. National Open Amateur Badminton Championships. Baltimore, scene of the Tenth Annual Championships in 1950, will again host the tournament, this time with the Tenth Annual National Open Championships.

The tournament may be the best in the ten-year history of this event. Co-ordinated as it is with the Uber Cup Final Tie and Challenge Round, there is assurance that all the leading American ladies will participate, together with those from the foreign Nations who are successful in winning their inter-zone ties and in participating in the finals. So we should have at least the top fifteen ladies in the world.

The male side will be well represented. In addition to California's Jim Poole, Joe Alston and Wynn Rogers, the committee has already extended special invitations to Erland Kops, All England titlist; Ferry Sonneville, defending U. S. Open Champion, of The Netherlands, and Charoen Wattanasin of Thailand, No. 2 World player; also, Bob McCoig, Scottish champion, and Tan Joe Hok, of Indonesia, who is presently studying at Baylor, but who may be in Baltimore at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. Funds permitting, the committee also intends to issue special invitations to the two top Canadian men.

MRS. JOANNE HESSEY 10th Open General Chairman

A few will remember the last Championships in Baltimore, held in 1950, with over 200 individual entries. That was the year Wynn Rogers and Barney McCay took the Men's Doubles Title, and Wynn subsequently paired with Mrs. Hulet Smith to capture the mixed event. Ethel Marshall also won the Ladies' Singles title that year, and both Ethel and Wynn are expected to compete in 1963.

The Gilman School gymnasium, in the northern suburbs of Baltimore, with five courts, reputedly among the best on the eastern seaboard, will be the scene of next year's action, scheduled for April 10 thru 13, 1963.

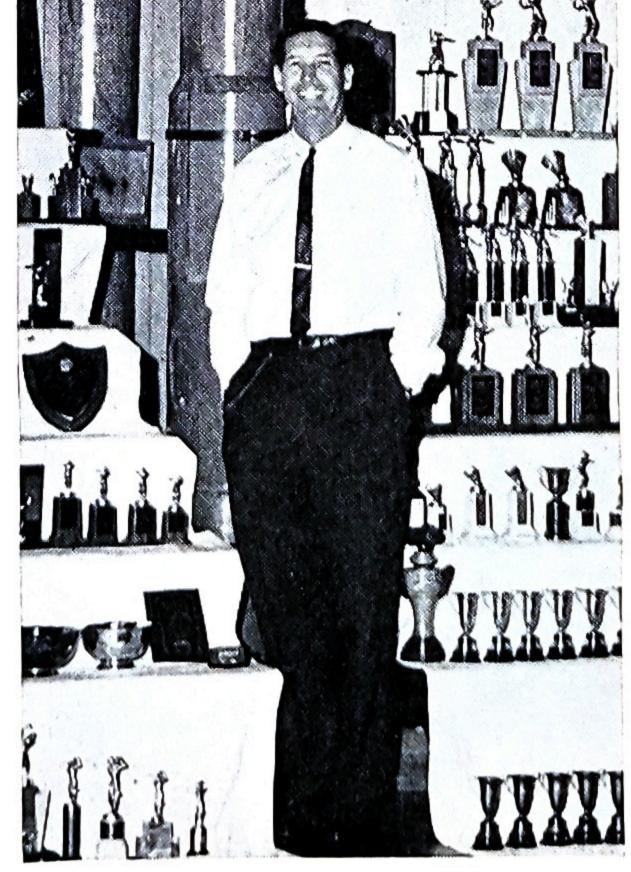

If experience means anything, this event should prove to be outstanding for both the athletic as well as the social standpoint. Mrs. Hessey has chaired the Mason Dixon Badminton Tournament, one of the largest fixtures held annually on the East Coast, on several previous occasions. She is assisted by an able committee of most enthusiastic players and workers. In addition to her husband, Jack, who is serving as Tournament Co-Chairman, Ed Smith, President of the Gilman Badminton Club, Mahlon Hessey, President of the Maryland Badminton Association, Frank Devlin, Cynthia Dryden, Frank Roberts, Betty Lee Potter, Jock Randall, and many other well known badminton figures are already industriously at work to assure a most successful event.

In addition to tournament activities and social events, participants will also enjoy seeing Baltimore, the birthplace of the Star Spangled Banner, and one of the world's leading ports.

OKLAHOMA OPEN RENAMED GEORGE HARMAN OPEN

There are not many of us who have a tournament named after them. In fact, the only one that comes to mind is the Dave Freeman Open after the non pareil player of all times. However, next Spring we will find on our list of Tournament Dates to Remember another personalized event when the 19th Annual Oklahoma Open is renamed the 1st Annual George Harman Open.

You can find the name George Harman in the earliest issues of Bird Chatter. He organized the Oklahoma Badminton Association in 1942 and started the annual Oklahoma Opens in 1943. Over his competitive years, George has amassed over 300 trophies and 500 medals. He has played 21 consecutive seasons without missing an area tournament. His awards are not only in the sport of badminton but also in swimming, golf, table tennis and several other sports.

In 1947, Ken Davidson told George that one day he would hang up his racquets and watch his children play. Daughter Lynne, 18, received a special award last February as the most improved badminton player in the Southwest. Her older sister, Lana, 22, has been a top contender for several seasons. Last March, in the last of the Oklahoma Opens, she won the Ladies Singles title in the Open and College Divisions while sister Lynne took the High School Division title. Ken's prophetic words came true earlier than predicted as George is still a strong competitor having given up only singles in open competition.

George Harman has been ranked nationally in singles and feels this was

Dr. Waldo K. Lyon, Arctic Scientist and ABA Vice-President

Many professions and lines of endeavor have been represented among the various people who have served as officers of the ABA. Probably one of the more unusual ones and certainly one of the most interesting ones is that of Dr. Waldo K. Lyon, of San Diego, Calif.

Dr. Lyon, who has just been elected second Vice-President of the ABA, is a Civilian Scientist, having served in this capacity with the U.S. Navy since 1941. Presently he is a Physicist with the Navy. Born in Los Angeles, a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles, Dr. Lyon holds a Ph.D. degree, is married (wife, Virginia) and has two children (Lorraine, 20, and Russell, 18). Listed in Who's Who and American Men of Science, Waldo was the Chief Scientist, U. S. Navy Department, for Arctic Submarine Operations and was the Senior Scientist on the first submarine crossing the Arctic Ocean aboard the USS Nautilus in 1958 and on subsequent Arctic submarine expeditions by the Skate, Sargo and Seadragon.

The entire Lyon family is very active in Badminton, with son, Russell, runner-up in Boys' Doubles at the Junior National Championships at Seattle this year. Waldo has been very active in San Diego and Southern California Badminton Association activities. Waldo presently holds the Senior Men's Doubles National Championship with Wynn Rogers.

In August, 1962, Waldo was one of five career officials to receive the 1962 Presidential Award for distinguished civilian service from President Kennedy. This is the highest honor the United States Government can bestow on a civilian career employee. The Award consists of a gold medal and Citation. Dr. Lyon heads the Naval Electronics Laboratory, Submarine Research Division at San Diego and already holds the Navy Distinguished Civilian Service Award and the Distinguished Civilian Service Award of the Department of Defense, the highest award each can bestow.

At the time of the Presidential Award, Dr. Lyon was on a highly secret submarine research mission and wife, Virginia, flew to Washington to receive the Award in Waldo's behalf from President Kennedy. The ceremony was televised by the major National television networks, and extensively reported by the major news services. All honor and congratulations to our noted ABA officer. We are indeed fortunate in having men of this calibre in our midst.

Your National Publicity Committee has been active in trying to promote the issuance of a commemorative stamp to honor the Uber Cup and our Ladies International Championship Team. Requests for the issuance of this stamp have been addressed to our Congressman and the Postmaster General. Attention has been called to the fact that several nations have issued Badminton stamps (Malaya, Japan and Indonesia). Success in our project to date has been notable by its absence but replies have been received and we are hopeful that our continued efforts will ultimately be rewarded. Meanwhile all of us can belp by writing our Congressmen and the Post Office Department asking for the issuance of such a commemorative stamp. The more interest that is shown as evidenced by actual letters the better chance we will have to succeed. Since this is a Uber Cup year and our United States ladies have been successful in holding the Uber Cup since the inception of the competition, this is a most appropriate time to strike "while the iron is hot."

That great Badminton enthusiast, Jake Lipman, writes that the old Pittsburgh Badminton Association, of which Jake has been secretary for many years, has dissolved. Funds remaining in the treasury have been turned over to various ABA Badminton activities, including the Uber Cup Fund. However, more important, is word that plans to reactivate the Pittsburgh B. A. are in the making. It is our sincere hope that this will materialize as the Pittsburgh group has done much to stimulate and promote Badminton in that area.

From Judy Devlin Hashman in England comes a letter stating in part "Dick and I are running a violent handicap tournament this coming weekend and have 54 different people coming for it—4 from Bristol, 2 from Portsmouth and about 30 from London. It's the entire Saturday and Sunday, with round-robin in both doubles and an ordinary mixed, plus a consolation event. The handicaps vary from hitting only backhands, to playing with a tennis racquet, to carrying an open umbrella, to sharing one racquet between two people and having to hit every alternate shot!" Sounds like great fun. Wonder why we don't try this on our side of the big pond. Maybe we have enough everyday frustrations without trying this, but still sounds like fun.

Our best wishes go to Colin Bartlett, the well known South African player, who is editing the new South Africa Badminton Magazine, Goose Feather Gossip. The first two issues reveal a wealth of information. An interesting feature is that it is bilingual with articles being written in both English and Afrikanss. Space seems to be pretty well divided between current news, tournament results, announcements, etc. and articles on Badminton by prominent Badminton personalities. It is hoped that the magazine will be well received and attain the success it deserves.

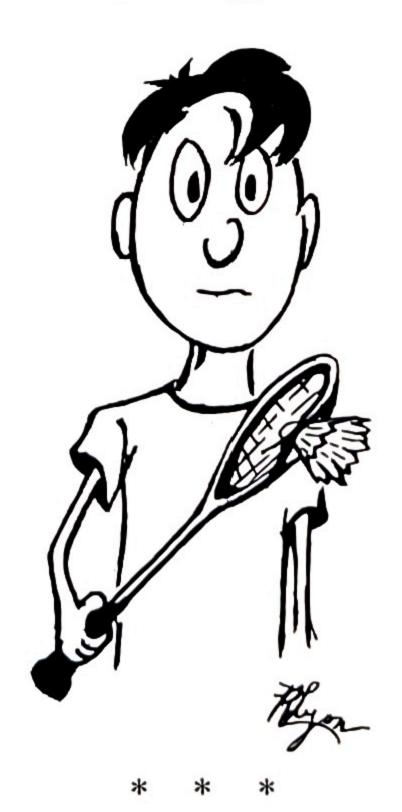

From our fine contemporary, the Badminton Gazette of England, we glean the first winner of a new trophy presented by H. M., the King of Sweden. The trophy is to be awarded annually to the winner of a special international invitation singles tournament. In the semi-final round, Kops defeated N. Bhornchima, of Thailand 15-5, 15-5 while M. Djundi, of Indonesia eliminated B. Dahlberg, of Sweden, 17-18, 15-5, 15-3. Kops won the final by 15-5, 9-15, 15-4.

Due to financial considerations Malaya, Denmark and Sweden will not be competing in the current Uber Cup contest, leaving the European Zone an all-British Isles affair. England stands a good chance of gaining the inter-zone semi-finals. Leading candidates for berths on the English team are top ranked English ladies, Miss Ursula Smith, Mrs. June Rogers, Miss A. M. Bairstow, Mrs. G. W. Barrand and Miss H. J. Prichard. It will take a pretty strong team to beat these English ladies, who will certainly do their best to reach the Challenge round and try to take the measure of the strong team the United States will field under the direction of the former Uber Cup International, Miss Ethel Marshall.

For the fourth consecutive year the proposal to change the laws of the game to permit the wood shot to become a legal shot has been placed before the International Badminton Federation annual meeting and for a fourth time the proposal has been defeated, which means the law will stand as written in the laws and rules of Badminton. Vote this time was 41 to 31, only 7 votes short of the two-thirds necessary for approval.

An interesting contestant in the Annual Santa Barbara Semana Nautica Tournament this summer was Lim Bie Chun, former Malayan Internationalist. Nancy, as her intimate friends know her, was born in Java, December 7, 1936. She moved to Singapore in 1946, became a British subject and received her early schooling in a convent school in Singapore. She came to the United States (San Francisco) in 1960 and is now a Senior attending San Francisco State College.

Nancy was the first woman from Singapore to play on the Malayan Uber Cup Team in 1959 when the team defeated Hong Kong 7-0. She has played mixed doubles with Ong Poh Lim and Wong Peng Soon. She has only taken up Badminton in recent years, her chief sport being swimming. She was Singapore champion in free style from 1952-1956. She spent two years (1956-1958) taking teacher's training at Singapore Teacher's Training College where she excelled in swimming and other athletic field events (javelin, discus and shot put).

She was offered a Physical Education scholarship at Springfield College in Ohio but preferred the West Coast. She is majoring in Social Science now and plans to return to Singapore to make use of her experience to help her people. Her brother, Jimmy, is in the School of Pharmacy at the University of North Carolina. Nancy loves all sports and has assisted at Badminton at the state college. We wish Nancy the best of luck in her chosen profession and hope she will keep up her interest in Badminton.

Our U. S. Open Champion, Ferry Sonneville found the going pretty rough in summer competition. Malaya's Teh Kew San was his nemesis in the semi-finals of the IV Asian Games Championships at Djarkarta in late August. Scores 15-10, 15-12. For final scores, see Tournament Results.

Evidence that Canada plans to go all out to win the next Thomas Cup Tie with the United States is indicated by the news contained in the Canadian Sport Monthly that former Badminton great, Wong Peng Soon, will come to the Montreal Badminton and Squash Club to act as a professional, assuming the post formerly held by Stanley Cutts. Although Wong Peng Soon is 43 years old he has proven that he has lost none of his old cunning, that made him one of the greatest Badminton Players of all time. From 1948

U.S. TO DEFEND UBER CUP

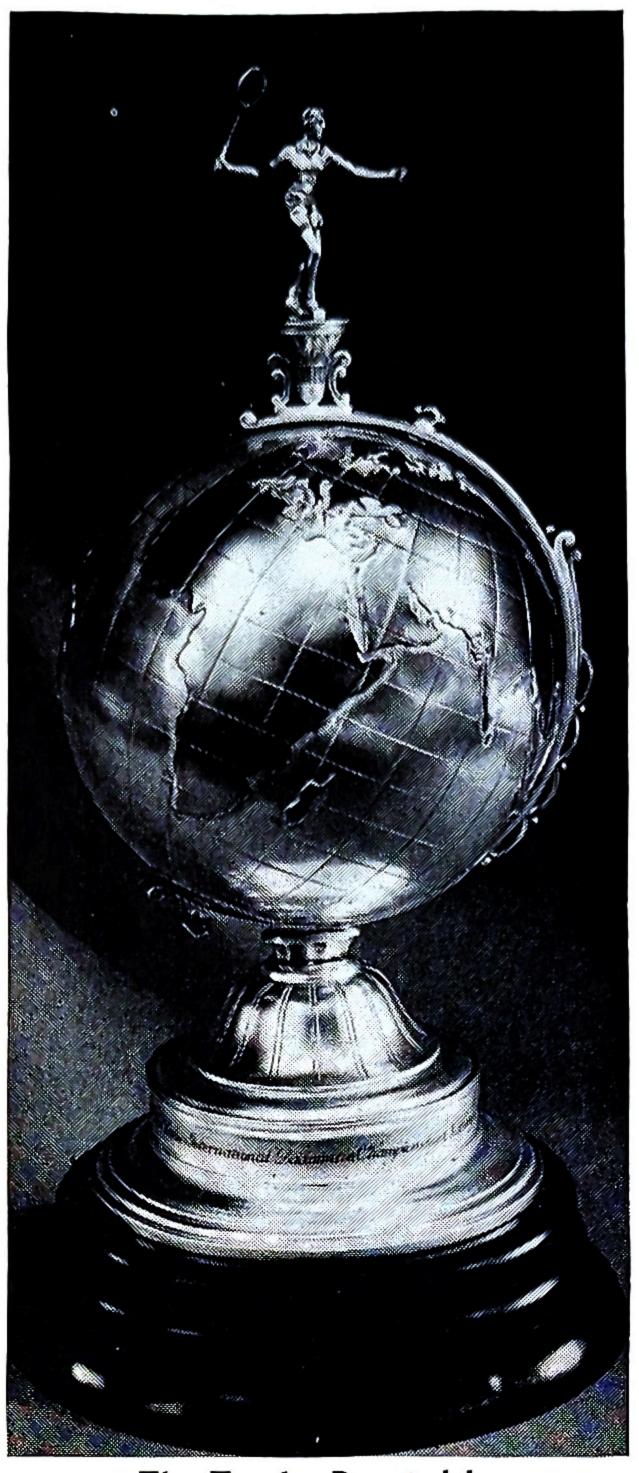

The 1962-63 season is a Uber Cup year again and the United States must again field a team of their best women players to defend their coveted title in April 1963.

The origin of the Uber Cup goes back a little more than a decade when Mrs. H. S. Uber, of England and of immortal playing fame a generation ago, donated her trophy to the IBF. Although it was not accepted by them at that time, because they thought it premature, the proposal was given consideration later and a motion was carried at the 1953 annual general meeting of the I.B.F., primarily thanks to the stern action taken by the New Zealand Badminton Federation to get an International Ladies' Championship started.

This is now the third time the Competition will take place with the first two going to the U.S. In February 1957, the U.S. girls successfully defeated the Canadians in Kitchner, Ont., giving them the right to travel to England where the first Uber Cup final took place. The team consisting of Sue and Judy Devlin, Ethel Marshall, Bea Massmann, Margaret Varner and Lois Alston, and with Connie Davidson as manager, brought the Trophy back after having defeated Denmark in the final 6-1.

The second Uber Cup competition took place in Philadelphia, April 9th, 1960, and again the Challenge Round was between U.S. and Denmark with the final score of 5-2 to the U.S. This time only Sue and Judy Devlin, Margaret Varner and Dorothy O'Neill actually played although Lois Alston and Beulah Armendariz also were members of the team.

The Uber Cup Committee is now working very hard toward the next Challenge Round which will take place in Wilmington, Dela., April 6th, 1963. Ethel Marshall, known to everyone, is the General Chairman and the person actually responsible for fielding the best team possible to represent the United States. Working with her on her committee are Naomi Bender, Thelma Burdick, Mary Connor, Dorothy Parsons, Jack van Praag and Hans Rozind. Ted Jarrett is heading a Sub-Committee of Management which, among other things, has the responsibility of staging the Zone-ties. At time of publication these sites have not been chosen.

The Uber Cup Committee has been fortunate enough to receive the backing of the People-to-People program which has opened many doors for us. This program was launched back in 1956 by former President Eisenhower and is designed to promote contacts and activities among individuals around the world which will further international understanding and friendship. The People-to-People program seeks to do this through the media of common interest, using existing bonds of understanding to foster that broader understanding, trust, and respect which is essential to friendship and peace. The People-to-People Sports Committee, Inc., which we are particularly interested in, has Col. Edward P. F. Eagan as President and Board Chairman and lists directors like Bob Considine, Bob Mathias, James A. Farley, Ford Frick, Ben Hogan, Bob Hope, James Norris, Ed Sullivan, Lowell Thomas, Joe DiMaggio, to mention a few.

By the help of People-to-People, we have been able to secure an impressive list of honorary chairmen, including the Ambassadors from Australia, Canada, Denmark, Great Britain, India, Ireland, New Zealand, Sweden and Thailand. This is a step in the right direction both for Badminton and for world peace. Another big advantage we have received by working with People-to-People is the deductible privilege which is applicable to all contributions to our Uber Cup fund.

For the past year a dedicated group of Uber Cup Squad members have been faithfully striving to condition themselves and have made many sacrifices to help assure a successful defense of the Cup. Now won't all of you, who read this story and appeal, do your bit toward helping achieve this common goal? Funds are urgently needed to help pay the expenses of sending these dedicated women to Cincinnati, Ohio site of the final tryouts for team spots, as well as to pay the expenses involved in bringing the selected team to Wilmington for the Challenge Round. Each of these squad members is working faithfully to help pay her expenses. Their efforts are commendable, but they are not enough. YOUR help is urgently needed. This is a case where every little bit helps. At a time when the United States athletic prestige has been slumping, we have a golden opportunity to do our part to help bolster that prestige by helping our women retain for the U. S., the World Badminton Team Championship. Let's all pitch in to help. This is a frank and unabashed

The Badminton Union of Ireland has nominated a squad of the top nine women players to train for the Uber Cup Tie against Scotland in December. From these nine, the 1962 Team will be chosen. Since the Badminton Union has jurisdiction over the whole island, the Irish Squad has the distinction of consisting of players from two different nations-Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland. Among the Squad members are Mary O'Sullivan, Yvonne Kelly, Mrs. Lena McAleese and Mrs. Susan Peard. Three more Northern players, in addition to Mrs. McAleese, and two more from the Republic round out the Squad which are busy preparing for the match to be held in Scotland.

The Scottish team is expected to include Wilma Tyre and Cathie Dunglison who reached the All England Ladies Doubles final in 1961. There are only three nations challenging in the European zone and the winner of this Tie will meet England. Should Scotland win, this Tie will be held in England; should Ireland win it will be held in Ireland.

The English Team will undoubtedly have Ursula Smith as their singles spearhead. She has reached the finals of the All England singles for the last two years. Mrs. Iris Rogers and Mrs. June Timperley may also be representing England and would add strength to the team.

This year's theme song for the women players of these countries could well be "America, here we come!"

WIN BERMUDA TRIP

McGregor Stewart is having a contest for the purpose of raising funds for the Uber Cup. The contest will be in the form of a jingle contest. Originally, the contest was to be a guessing contest much like the Detroit Thunderbird contest. However, due to the fact that tickets for the contest will be sent through the mail, the post office regulations state that the "chance" element must be eliminated and, therefore, a jingle contest was suggested. The prize for the contest will be a 6 day cruise to Bermuda for two from New York City. This will be taken at the winner's discretion. Each ticket will cost $5.00 and the contestant will be asked to fill in the last 2 lines of the jingle. The contest will close on Februery 17, 1963. Anyone who has not already been contacted and would like to help sell some tickets, please contact McGregor Stewart, 4430 Wickford Road, Baltimore. Anyone who would like to enter the contest directly, please fill out the following jingle and send it to Mc-Gregor along with your $5.00.

Teaching The Adult Beginner

by Abbie Rutledge

Ed. note: The author has been a nationally ranked badminton player for many years. Currently, she is ranked No. 5 in Ladies' Singles and No. 4 in Ladies' Doubles. A Physical Education teacher, she holds an associate professorship at Adelphi College, Garden City, N.Y. Her publications and articles cover the subject of Folk Dances as well as Badminton.

The adult beginner in badminton frequently has a difficult task in trying to develop skill in the game. First there are almost always problems of limited space for courts, inadequate practice times, and often worse, a lack of instruction.

It seems to me that there are two basic categories into which adult beginners fall. One is the college age student who, as part of a required physical education program, becomes enrolled in a badminton class. This beginner depends almost entirely upon the instructor to stimulate his interest, and it is up to the instructor to make the student like the game so much he will want to continue to play after college. This is no small task. The other group of adult beginners is composed of those not in a school situation who choose to learn to play badminton because of friends who play, the need for exercise, or just plain good sense! These are the players who join a badminton club or group of other interested people and attempt to learn the game in this way.

It is my purpose to describe in this article the most important phases of the game which a beginner should learn and can practice pretty much on his own, if necessary. These techniques should be practiced many, many times before a "social" game is even attempted—that is, if the beginner has any desire to pass beyond the "novice" or "C" player stage. I feel that the basic fundamentals of badminton are too often hurried over in a hasty attempt to play the game. Some instructors will devote much time to seeing that a youngster learning to play learns thoroughly and properly. Yet they will permit an adult beginner to learn incorrectly, probably thinking the adult will not play long anyway. And it is also true that the "backyard" variety of badminton is learned faster. So some instructors substitute early fun in playing for a growing ability to play correctly and thus a life-long enjoyment of badminton.

Space will not allow a description of the proper grips for both forehand and backhand hitting, analysis of strokes and techniques, methods of strategy, etc. This information is best obtained from a qualified instructor. And in my opinion, a qualified instructor is not necessarily a tournament or championship player, but is a person with a sound knowledge of and interest in badminton. I should like to stress, too, that much can be learned by the adult beginner from reading books or articles written by persons who know the game of badminton.

There are two phases of the game which are of primary importance to the beginning player: one is footwork, the other is proper racket handling. Both are vital and should be learned, I feel, simultaneously. You cannot handle your racket too well while shuffling aimlessly about the court, nor does beautiful footwork promise good stroke production.

These two things then must be practiced correctly at the earliest stage of learning. I have found drills to be most effective at this point, even though the adult beginner sometimes rebels against such drills in his hurry to "play." For proper racket handling, I suggest having the group—or person—stand where the instructor can observe all hand positions. Having had the proper grips and body positions analyzed and demonstrated, the players, on signal, adjust body and hand positions from forehand stroking to backhand stroking. This should be repeated often since the tendency of most beginners is to use the Western (or Hammer) grip while standing flat-footed facing the net! The correct grip is essential, so this must be checked often—either by the instructor or the individual player. Once the beginner knows the correct grip, and uses it comfortably, the drill may be omitted.

Another excellent practice technique for beginners learning to handle the racket is executing imaginary shots as either overhead forehand or backhand clears, or underhand clears on both sides. Here a player begins to learn about wrist action, and can tell by the "swishing" sound when he is using wrist in the stroke. Frequent checking of grip is necessary again.

One more excellent technique is recommended to follow the first two drills mentioned. This is hitting a nylon or plastic shuttle against a hard wall or backboard from a distance of about four feet. The shuttle rebounds with some speed and to both sides of the body, causing the player to move his racket quickly from place to place. This drill can be a wrist strengthener as well if done several minutes at a time.

Good footwork is not learned easily by most people. I have observed hundreds of adults learning badminton whose main difficulty seems to be moving. This is understandable since many of them have been away from sports and games for several years, and at best have not played a game requiring such rapid footwork. In many cases, these beginners are able to hit the shuttle well enough when they happen to be near it, or when they play what I call "Cooperative Badminton"—you know, "you hit to me and I'll hit to you." So here again I feel a drill is necessary and have had excellent results in using it.

To learn footwork, the player begins by taking a central or base position on the court he is to cover. Then on a signal of either "up" or "back," the player moves quickly in that direction approximately four running steps, or sliding steps in case of backward moving. (NOTE: Here it is more or less up to the individual to move as comfortably as he can. If the instructor is not sure of the best mechanics of running, length and type of steps for best results, etc. it is suggested that observation of or discussion with an excellent player may help. Reference to a good book will again be invaluable.)

If the player runs forward, he must execute an imaginary underhand forehand stroke. If he moves back, he hits an imaginary overhead forehand, and after each stroke he returns as quickly as possible to his base position. This can be kept up as long as desired. It is not only good as a technique to learn footwork, but is an excellent conditioner. When forward and backward moving become easier and more rhythmical for the player, sideward and diagonal moving should be added, with emphasis being placed on control of the body while moving, and avoiding over-running or running too far in each direction.

Rope skipping is excellent for improving footwork. Once the simplest form of rope skipping has been mastered, the player should try to jump on alternate feet, change directions, vary speed, etc. This is excellent for footwork, rhythm, and later becomes a leg strengthener and stamina builder.

Once the player is moving efficiently without a great waste of energy, understands the basic necessities of good footwork, and is comfortable with the racket held correctly, then the rest of the game becomes relatively simple—with practice. Much practice of all the strokes is necessary, with particular early emphasis being placed on the forehand and backhand clear. This is certainly a basic stroke and factors such as good timing, correct wrist action and proper position of the body in relation to the shuttle are necessary for improvement of skill.

It should be mentioned here that equipment plays a large part in the game of badminton. The beginner should select a racquet of recommended weight, balance, grip, and it should be properly strung. It does not have to be expensive to be adequate, but should be carefully selected. Good support for the feet is also essential, and the player should avoid "cheap" tennis shoes which offer little protection for the feet.

An adequate program for adult beginners may take several forms, but in general should consist of a minimum of two one-hour weekly sessions. More time is desirable, if possible. The size of the group should depend upon the number of courts available. Instruction is important, with clinics and demonstrations by good players proving helpful, also. If a player is seriously interested in improving his game, supplemental practices of the drills included here should be done—daily, if possible. Most beginners would be actually amazed at their progress if this were done. It is a fallacy to believe that an adult cannot become a very creditable player. I have seen it happen many times and I am sure that the enjoyment gained from playing well is worth every minute of the time spent—by both the player and the instructor.

JUNIOR NEWS REPORT

FROM RHODE ISLAND Arlene Hilton, Reporter

Two colleges, and fifteen senior and junior high schools sent representatives to the annual R.I. Junior Badminton Tournament last April in East Providence, R.I. as a field of 160 entrants competed in the ten events scheduled. The tournament, under the capable direction of Miss Dorothy Christiansen, a Pawtucket teacher, moved smoothly from its hectic beginning—upsets sparked many of the early rounds—to its exciting end which found an enthusiastic gallery rooting for favorites in the finals.

The Martha Jones Trophy, awarded annually to the outstanding girl player, went this year to Ann Nordstrom of the University of R.I., who defeated last year's title holder, Linda Bowmer, in a two game match 11-2, 11-3. Miss Nordstrom and her partner, Bonnie Phillips, also won the Sr. GD by defeating Miss Bowmer and Sharon Anforth 15-7, 15-6.

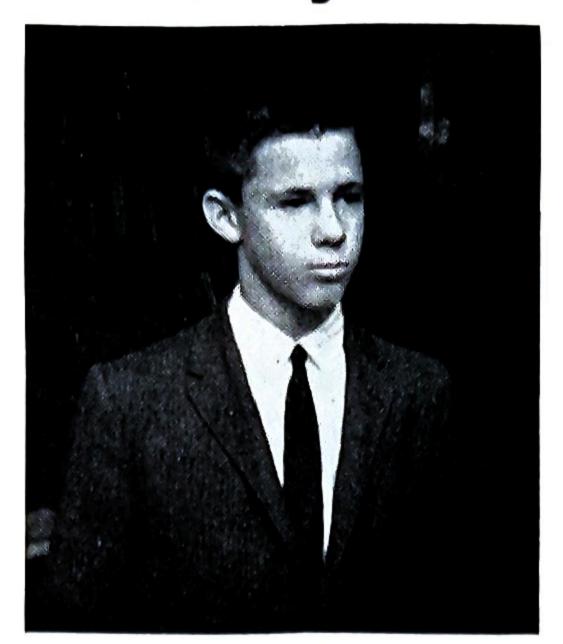

It was Larry Rittmann all the way in the Sr. Boys' Division. He managed to fly off with the Fred Davis Trophy for outstanding Junior player in the State, as he added three titles to his growing list. Larry won the Sr. BS over Douglas Quinn 15-1, 15-4; he then teamed with Doug to win the Sr. BD over Bruce Hallworth and Donald McClintock 15-0, 15-3; and in, perhaps, the best match of the final round, teamed with Miss Phillips in the Sr. MxD defeating Miss Anforth and Mr. Quinn 18-15, 15-12.

Tremendous enthusiasm was shown by the younger youngsters, as the Jr. Division, for those players 16 years and younger, drew a large group of relatively new players from every section of the state. This division also included some players with experience in the State Open Tournament. The play of Jane Thompson, who won the Jr. Division title by defeating Betty Stamper, then teamed with her to defeat Jackie Gushi and Diane Pilobosian in the Doubles, was exciting to watch. The Jr. MxD event went to Miss Stamper and yet another Rittman —this time Don, brother of Larry, and son of Karl, well known Senior Player in the East—as they won rather handily over Miss Thompson and Dennis Murphy 15-5, 15-6.

Outstanding Junior

WHEELER NEFF

The winner of the 13 and under BS and MxD, and runner-up in BD with Jeff Niess of California, at the Seattle National Junior Championships last Spring, is our junior to watch for this coming season. Wheeler Neff, of Wilmington, Dela., now 14 years old and ineligible to compete further in the 13 and U events, will now concentrate in the category of 15 and U. His older brother, Bill, reached the 15 and U BS and BD semifinals in 1961 at Boston. If Wheeler's improvement continues at its present pace, he may beat his brother's fine showing.

Wheeler is a 9th grader at Tower H.S. in Wilmington. He is on the varsity tennis team and won the Delaware State Junior 14 and U singles tennis title during the past Summer. He mixes his racquets quite well, it seems. This Fall will find him playing left half-back on the Tower Junior Varsity football team.

Although Wheeler will not be able to defend his present BS and MxD titles (mixed won with Nancy Bender also of Wilmington), he is looking forward to play in the Junior Nationals at Philadelphia next Spring and will be playing in as many tournaments as football will permit to assure himself the best possible showing in the older age group. We wish him lots of luck for the several seasons he still has to play junior badminton.

PHILADELPHIA SITE OF JUNIOR NATIONALS

The Delaware Valley Badminton Association and the Wissahickon Badminton Club of Philadelphia, Pa. will be sponsors of the 1963 Junior National Championships. For the first time, all three categories of play—18 and under, 15 and under, and 13 and under—will be official national junior championship events. In the past, only the 18 and under events were official junior championships, but at the 1962 Annual Meeting in Indiantown Gap, Pa., this new rule was passed by the Directors.

The tournament will probably be held at the Wissahickon Badminton Club on March 27-30. There are four excellent courts at the club. It is probable that courts other than this club's will be used for preliminary matches and for consolation rounds, if they can be scheduled. In any case, the sponsors wish to assure contestants and parents that playing conditions will be tip-top with comfortable areas for player relaxation when not in actual tournament play.

It is planned to house individual contestants in private homes. Although this is not required, it is felt that the contact between club members and junior contestants is very desirable.

Co-chairmen, John Cornell and Charles D. Root Jr., are already busy with plans for publicity, clinics and recreation for contestants. The record breaking entry list of 177 established at Seattle is a tough one to shoot for but these two chairmen feel it is not an impossible task. As plans progress, a report will be made to keep all Bird Chatter readers up-to-date. Watch for more news in the next issue.

One of the high points of the finals was the Jr. BD match which provided an exciting three game match—hotly contested—and finally won by Gary Hermis and Edward Tymko over Walter Wall and Frank Geiselman by the three game score 7-15, 15-11, 18-16.

both from the school departments and the R.I. Badminton Assn. on hand to direct the affair, augers well for the future of Badminton in the area! One very junior player was heard to brag that he had actually been able to practice for three whole hours in the small gym. The comments of the very senior players (among them your reporter) as they enviously watch natural young reflexes at work can hardly be repeated in such a "family journal" as this one. But we don't really mean it kids! We'll continue to sponsor as long as you show your interest—and yes, we will play with legs under 25 years even if you do clobber us all over the field!

Badminton player, Bruce Mahler, co-holder of the National Boys' Doubles 18 and U with Dickie Gorman, will probably be named number 1 tennis player in New England this year in the 16 and U. Among the tournaments Bruce has won this year in singles and doubles are: So. Shore, Southern New England, Eastern Open, Maine State, New England Interscholastic, Class "A," Junior Chamber of Commerce in Mass. (which qualified him to represent Mass. in the Jaycee Tourney at Corpus Christi, Texas), Oyster Harbor and the Needham Men's Championships.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA Pat Cornell, Reporter

Wissahickon Juniors are off to a big start this season with splendid turnouts. This is a big year for Junior activities in the Philadelphia area with the Junior Nationals to be held here in 1963. Plans are already under way under the capable hands of Charles "Chuck" Root and John Cornell.

FROM WESTERN N.Y. Ethel Marshall, Reporter

John Creighton, from the Niagara Falls Country Club, played third singles in tennis for Deveaux, while other Amherst boys, Bob Egan and Wayne Murphy, played first and third singles for Williamsville High, and Bob May participated in tennis at St. Joe's High. All of these lads are outstanding badminton players and it is hoped will be making the trip to Philadelphia come early 1963 for the National Junior Tourney. Carl Weissgerber played first singles for the Park School which all goes to prove that tennis and badminton do mix successfully. A troublesome appendix kept our other top Junior boy, Doug Risk, on the sidelines during the tennis school season.

FROM OHIO Ronnie McClelland, Reporter

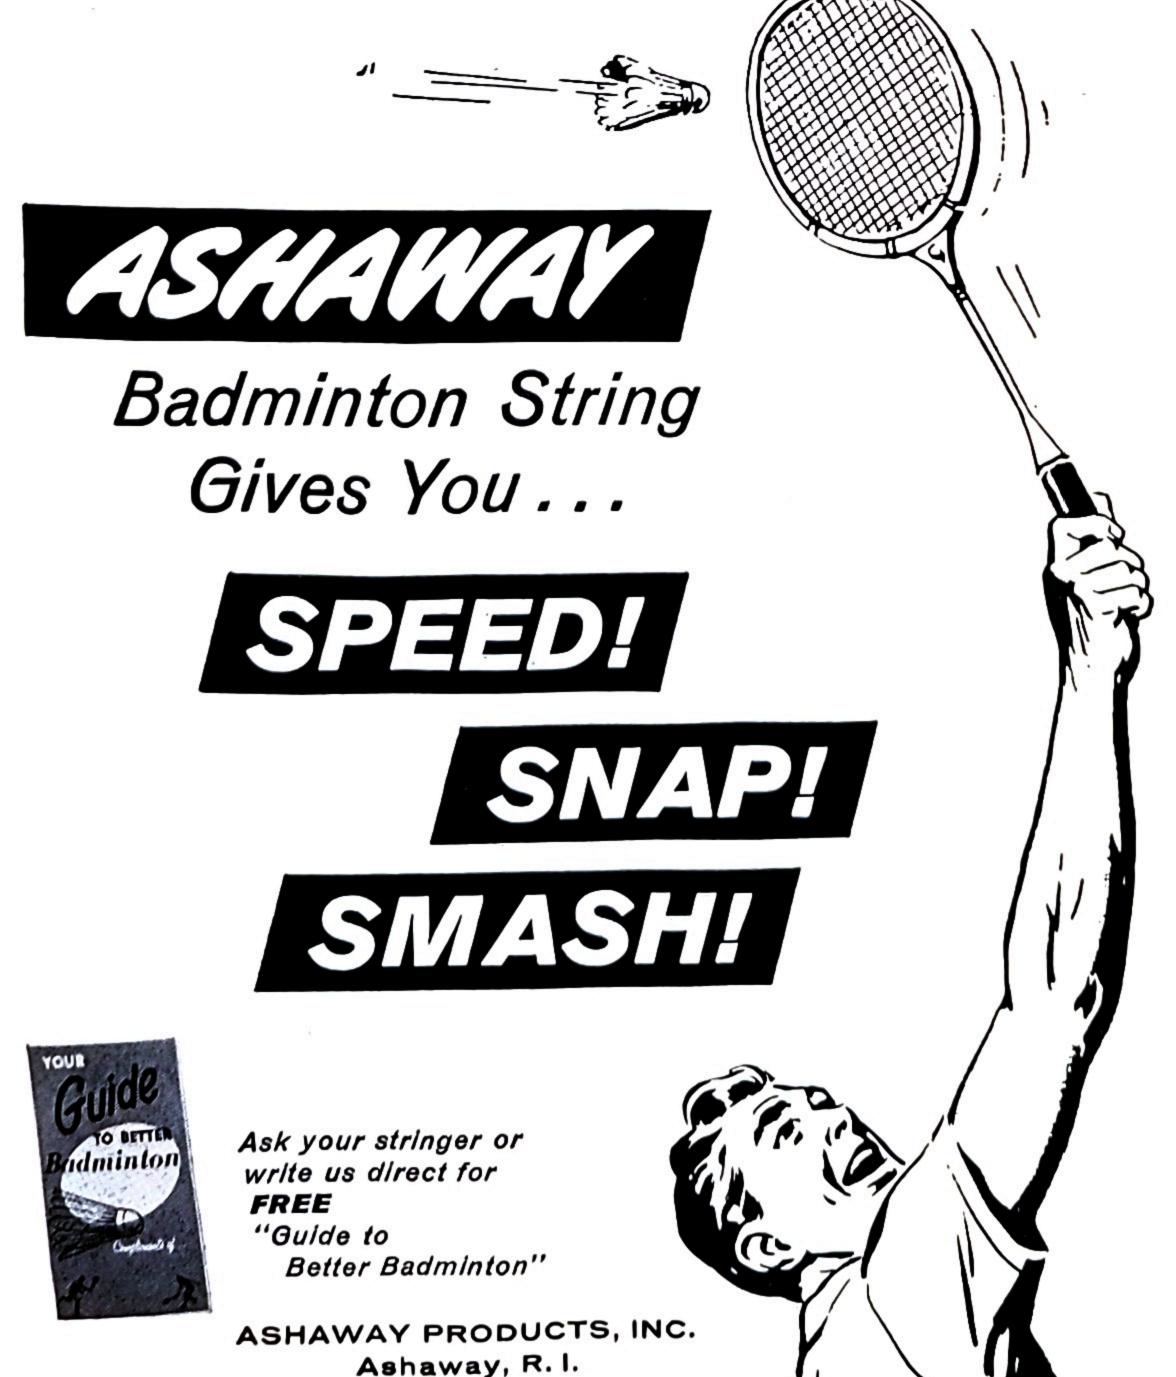

Bill and Dick Wilke, well-known in midwest junior tournaments, are college freshmen—Bill at Notre Dame, Dick at St. Louis University. They've promised to keep their badminton eye'.

FROM WASHINGTON Tyna Barinaga, Reporter

The second week of September found the birds flying again in the school gymnasium — the three courts were crowded with noisy, eager kids once again, five nights a week and another busy badminton season was begun.

Thinking about the many anticipated out-of-town trips once the season is underway, the club has not been

Since the last issue of BC, quite a few future racquet swingers appeared on the scene ready for "play" and appropriately attired in white . . . diapers, that is. In Houston, David Freeman weighed in at the half-grown stage of nine pounds and seven ounces, much to the consternation of parents, Lee and John. Just to balance things off, Betty and John Capshaw started their family off with an eight pound, six ounce girl, Megan . . . sure and begorrah a bit of sweetness to keep Daddy occupied. The stork was really busy in the Southwest as Pete and Ed Stuart added a fourth in the person of Marian Elizabeth.

UC squad member, Norma Slauer Veal, has been hard at practice following the birth of a daughter, Marlene Louise, last May . . . husband Bill describes Marlene as a darling screaming badminton fan already. A future Thomas Cupper appeared in June . . . Jon Richard Poole is now helping sister, Kelley Sue, keep parents Jim and Sue Poole busier than ever.

Lee Chadbourne Burling and husband, Jim, now in Boulder, Colo., had a two month premature daughter, Karen, in August, weighing just two pounds and ten ounces. We're happy to report that Karen is now hale and hearty with hopes of one day gaining a national ranking title like her Mother.

Mass. BA's VP, Harvey Winchester, passed out cigars for the third time during the summer . . . the new arrival is Linda Lee. Wife Dottie is kept pretty busy with three little ones now, Candy, Billy and Linda . . . Harvey is busy taking care of Karma (a dachshund), Kismet (a Siamese cat), Delight (their horse), and Clucky and Lucky (two Bantam Roosters).

Congratulations are also in order for Wissahickon club members, Michael and Phyllis Stas . . . it's a girl! Michael travelled to Europe this summer to play in the International Professional Tennis Tourney.

Other travelers during the summer were Frank and Sue Peard and their daughter, Pamela . . . Grandmother and Grandfather Devlin report that she is a winner! Judy and Dick Hasman visited in Owings Mills again this summer managing to visit with the Baltimore "gang" as well. Judy helped her mother with a tennis day camp.

The University Club's Shirley and Cliff Sawyer took a 13 day cruise this summer visiting such interesting places as Kingston, Jamaica, Port-au-Prince, Haiti, Curacao and Caracas, Venezuela . . . Shirley's biggest thrill was when she hit a $40 jackpot in the one-armed bandits of Aruba.

San Diego's Gloria Page attended summer school in Madrid, Spain . . . her favorite sight-seeing companions were two nuns. Also in Europe for a holiday was Amherst's Vic Petock . . . Shaker BC's Norm Atchison vacationed on a cruise of the Baltic Sea with several days in Moscow and Leningrad . . . better then than now! December will find friends of Bob and Louise Yerkes and Bill and Wilhemina Frey receiving cards with European post marks . . . visits to badminton clubs over there is definitely on their agenda. We hope they like it so much they'll want to return with the Badminton Tour group next August. (Did you read page 6?)

Seems like there was reciprocity between California and Texas this summer . . . Don

Ryan, from Austin, spent time in San Diego managing to stay over for the MBBC doubles tourney over Labor Day. At about the same time, Mae and Ron Carr, La Canada, journeyed to Texas to visit daughter, Ardie, who is an army wife, and a badminton instructor and part time student at Baylor.

Ken and Sharlee Elsworth, Philadelphia badmintoneers and familiar faces on the East Coast, have moved to Switzerland where he is with Remington Rand... other missing faces in Philly are Elsa and Chuan Chu, who now live in the Boston area and are playing at the UC. Wissahickon President, Reed Stovall, and his family have moved into their new home in Villanova.

The New Orleans BC sadly misses two of their top players and their wives who moved to Vicksburg, Miss. early this summer . . . assuming the role of Head Master at All Saints Episcopal School is Rev. John Jenkins. With him, as director, is Sam Parkerson. Replacing Jenkins is Rev. Scott Irwin from Alexandria, Va., a top flight tennis player with much enthusiasm for badminton also.

New Hampshirites with changes of address now are Bill Cruikshank who moved his family to Concord and Kathy and Ernie Tsouros who moved 'way out to Californi-a.

Ye Editor traveled the length of the West Coast in September and found badminton hospitality in Seattle and Port Angeles non pareil . . . it was real fun to meet and talk with former BC Editor, Bob Kildall . . . and Vern Burton and Lee Kreider in PA were most accommodating getting out their group to play on one of the few off days they have.

Southern California hosted two beautiful weddings this summer, where the brides and grooms have now left for other areas . . . in July, Alfred Hales and Ginny Greene tied the knot, then were off to England to live while he studies at Oxford for a year. In August, Nancy Vening became Mrs. Ed. Cypert, and they have returned to Arizona to resume studies at Arizona SU.

A November wedding is planned by Linda Cobb, former Junior doubles partner of Judy Devlin Hashman . . . James Nelson Perry, her fiance, is with the Armored Carrier Corporation in Bayside, Queens, N. Y.

Evelyn Browne, P.E. teacher at the Uni. of N.H., former secretary of NHBA, received her M.A. in History at UNH in June . . . Bimy Hall, of Needham, Mass., past chairman of Junior Activities, has returned to Boston U. to get her degree . . . Bimy is also about to be a grandmother very soon. Good luck, Bimy.

Needham Junior Bruce Mahler is the top athlete in the Mahler household, but Mother, Bunny, is running him a close second as evidenced by her selection to participate in a tennis exhibition in August at Wellesley . . . playing with Maureen Connelly, "Little Mo," they were defeated by Sally Cook of Wellesley and Judy Tegart of Australia in a very exciting match. Also competing in this exhibition was Bill Goodman, past prexy of MBA.

Mary and Ed Moran of Dover, Mass. held a neighborhood badminton outdoor party in late August . . . after cocktails and buffet supper, outdoor badminton was played on the Morans' asphalt court.

Three Maryland State Ladies Champions, Patsy Stephens, Cynthia Dryden and Mc-Gregor Stewart, competed in the Municipal Tennis Championships during the hot months with Patsy the winner . . . Patsy was listed by the press as a "veteran" player, much to everyone's consternation . . . this press issues a protest right now.

Santa Monica BC's Dr. John Ward, from Blyth, Northumberland, England, is in Los Angeles for a year doing research in nuclear medicine at UCLA . . . he's already entered four tournaments in the short time he has been in the area.

Another recent arrival in Southern California is Andre Van Heel, from Amsterdam, Holland . . . we were quite pleased when he told us he had heard much about Bird Chatter in Holland and would like to subscribe now.

Paisan Loaharanu, U.S. Junior singles and mixed champion, has been joined in this country by his older brother, Pichai, also an excellent player. Paisan has re-entered Whittier College this Fall and "Pete," as Pichai is more familiarly referred to, has enrolled at Northrop Institute in San Diego . . . two P. Loaharanus in a draw would be too much for any Tournament Director so Pichai is aka Pete Pichai . . . watch Tournament Results for that name . . . this boy is good!

Someone to watch in the future, if this gal is a chip off the ole block . . . Mindy Tibbetts, age 11, won the 13 and U GS Consolation in the recent Alhambra Jr. and was RU in 11 and U.

Fernando (Cheetah) Molinar of Mexico spent some time in U.S. doing some special work... he had hoped to attend a tournament while here, but could not fit it in. Ted Jarrett spent several days in California but his schedule again did not blend with a tournament this time.

Victor Jaramillo, president of the Mexican Badminton Federation, reports tremendous upswing in junior badminton among the youngsters in Mexico City, both in quality and quantity. He hopes to be able to bring some of them to U.S. junior competition.

Tan Joe Hok spent a large portion of the summer vacation from his pre-med studies at Baylor U. in the Bayou City of Texas with Houston club members fishing and chasing the bird! Joe seemed to enjoy the fishing at Galveston more than anything else and was so successful at catching fish that other fishermen wanted to take a look at his "Indonesian bait" . . . bachelor Jerry Shafer shared his apartment with Joe and, in return, was treated to some home-cooked Indonesian dishes by Chef Hok . . . Joe also spent some time in Dr. Joe Izen's Clinic observing operations and treatment of ear, nose and throat ailments in order to obtain first-hand experience for his medical training.

Jim Lynch of Amherst Township represented Buffalo in the National Public Parks Tennis Tournament held in Detroit this year and Bea Massman and Ethel Marshall won their 13th Buffalo Muny Ladies Doubles Championship in tennis. Buffalo is losing that top tennis and badminton brother duo of Bob and Rick Dow to Chattanooga, Tennessee. Pop Dow had a change in jobs.

The Ponca City Club of Oklahoma is most pleased to announce the change of the name of their annual open tournament to the George Harman Open. So far, serving as A.B.A. President, has been both stimulating and fun. The fine support that has come in from all of you everywhere has been most reassuring and appreciated. It is my hope that the "honeymoon" will last for a long time—for two years and three months to be exact.

to 1955 he was strongly instrumental in helping Malaya maintain its world supremacy in Thomas Cup play. He has won many Malayan singles championships. Starting in 1950 he won three consecutive All-England singles titles. Eddy Choong won it the next two years, but the next year, three years after winning his third title, Peng Soon came back to defeat Eddy for the All-England title. Turning professional, Peng Soon then proved his tremendous coaching ability by coaching the Thailand Thomas Cup team, enabling them to beat the supposed invulnerable Danish team for the right to challenge the Indonesian holders of the Cup. The Thais were defeated 6-3 but came very close to beating the Indonesians. Wong Peng Soon is also well known in the United States for his fabulous matches with our own unbeatable Dr. Dave Freeman from which Dave emerged victorious in each case. Peng Soon will start his duties in Montreal in mid-October. We wish him well in his new assignment.

9th OPEN A SUCCESS

Harvey Snavely, Director of the 1962 Nationals at Indiantown Gap, Pa. last April recently received the financial report which proved the tournament a success financially as well as in all other phases.

Mr. Snavely extends special thanks to U.S. Army Garrison personnel, the Delaware Valley B.A., the Lebanon B.C. and the businessmen of Lebanon; and last, but not the least, the contestants who participated so enthusiastically thus making all our efforts worthwhile.

entirely idle during the summer. In July, a concession stand was operated during a three day women's softball tournament held in Port Angeles and all profits went into the Badminton Club Fund; a car wash was sponsored by the club during August and a Rummage Sale was held the latter part of September.

We all feel this coming season will be our most exciting and rewarding with the keen competition that must be met to retain titles already won and to gain new ones. It is also fun to look forward to seeing old friends from all over the country.

FROM CALIFORNIA Helen Tibbetts, Reporter

San Diego juniors and former juniors got lots of play during the Summer. Ray Park and Rus Lyon were home from college; Paisan Loaharanu and his brother, Pete, spent the Summer in San Diego. This quarter provided the "seniors" with some sharp competition in the off season. Pete and Paisan probably put in more hours at Balboa Park playing badminton than anyone. In September, Paisan returned to Whittier College, Rus to UCLA, and Ray to Pomona. Pete remained in San Diego and is attending Northrup Technical Institute. Joy Auxier, Los Angeles junior, is now enrolled as a freshman at San Diego State College. Gloria Page's four juniors, Jan DeZort and Lynn Hurt (semifinalists at Nationals in 15 and U), Maida Johnson and Gay Meyen, put in lots of hours in the off season also and plan to be regular tournament "goers" all season.

Los Angeles juniors kept busy, but probably the busiest was Manhattan Beach's Susie Vening. Susie attended the Girl Scout Roundup in Button Bay, Vt. as representative of her Mariner Scout Group and then was maid of honor at sister, Nancy's, wedding in August. Stan Hales, 1960 Junior National Champion, went to Hawaii with his parents after his brother's wedding but is now again a student at Pomona College. Linda Erkilla returned to Cal Poly for her sophomore year. Sister Ann is still at UC Davis.

Late News Item!

INDONESIA AND INDIA WIN UBER CUP ROUNDS

The Indonesian ladies' badminton team beat the Thai ladies in four out of seven matches in the first round Uber Cup competition at Bangkok on September 30.

The Indonesians' victory came from 2 doubles and 2 singles wins while the Thailand girls won 2 singles and 1 doubles match. Champions of the two nations, Indonesia's 18-year-old Minarni and Thailand's Pat Pattapongs, did not meet in a singles match.

In Hong Kong, on September 29, India defeated Hong Kong 5-2 taking three doubles and two singles matches with Hong Kong winning a singles and doubles match.

The Indonesians now will meet the Indian team to decide the champion of the Far Eastern zone. The winner of that match will play in the interzone competition in the United States.

larly look to the National Publicity Committee for tournament summaries and news articles for inclusion in their annual Yearbooks and new editions, a healthy sign of increasing national and international interest in Badminton. Probably one of the finest and most lasting pieces of publicity for Badminton was accomplished when Margaret Varner was invited to write a 1500 word article for the "Book of Knowledge" encyclopedia. This article will appear in the next edition and will be a credit to Margaret and the ABA.

Marty Trifonoff, of the Mid West Badminton Association, has come up with a great idea that could easily become a nice fund raising project, but which in any case would most certainly be of great interest and help to various sectional Badminton Associations. No doubt she will be most happy to expound her idea to any interested parties. Briefly her idea is that she is willing to compile, edit and print directories for the various sectional Badminton Associations, givings lists of clubs, officers, time and place of play, tournament results, rankings and miscellaneous information. She will also make periodic revisions and additions. This she will do for a nominal sum sufficient to pay postage and printing costs. The various Associations could in turn sell these on a subscription basis for a nominal sum (around 50 cents) to the individual members of each association. The value of such a directory or publication can easily be seen as nothing is so helpful in promoting growth and continued interest as an up-to-date guide and informative Association Directory. Marty will be glad to hear from you and you will be glad you did. She can be reached at 8613 Riverdale, Dearborn 6, Michigan.

Badminton received another big boost when Joe Alston and Manuel Armendariz appeared on the Nationally telecast Steve Allen Show Friday night, October 5. Joe and Manuel put on a fine show of trick shots and even Steve himself got into the act. We are very proud of our two fine Badminton Ambassadors.

From Coast . . . to Coast

Region 1 New Hampshire B.A.

After a successful badminton season last year, we are all looking forward to events of the coming year. A schedule of seven New Hampshire badminton tournaments are expected to be held this season, including a separate State C Tournament and two invitation tournaments with Rhode Island.

Men's league matches between Concord and Manchester will continue again this winter. Arthur Zitrides, Chairman of League Play, expects at least two teams of A-B players from both Concord and Manchester. The league schedule will consist of six matches, with each match played every other week.

John Nelson, Chairman of the Rating Committee, will have the rating of New Hampshire players completed by December. Individual ratings will be sent out to New Hampshire players shortly after.

In the past few years, membership of the New Hampshire Badminton Association has grown rapidly. We now have eight affiliated clubs, including the Manchester YMCA, Penacook, Tilton, Bowbrook and Wonolancet of Concord, the University of New Hampshire, Claremont, and Gilford.

The Claremont B.C. started just last year. They now have a membership of over 30, and they completed work this fall on three new courts at the city armory. At the end of their season last year, a match was held with players from Penacook; both clubs are anxious to have more matches with clubs throughout the state this season.

Rhode Island B.A.

Close to a hundred players and their friends attended the Annual Banquet and Meeting of the R.I.B.A. in May. The banquet—Smorgasbord style—a departure from the more formal sessions of the past, and featuring a badminton playing magician, Dick Roy, as entertainer, was voted a success by all present.

A new Secretary, Clara Andrade; Treasurer, James LaForge; and two Executive Board Members, Lois Wartman and Ed Phillips, were elected. They join President, Ed Gooding, Vice Presidents, Roland LaForge and Robert Nelson, and Executive Members Jack Cooper and Alex McWhirter in making up the slate of officers for the 1962-63 Season.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of trophies and awards. The Robins Trophy for outstanding service to badminton went this year to Mrs. Grayce Donaldson, one of the state's better women players, leader of a local club, and a hard working promoter of badminton for "fun" as well as competition.

A new award—the Dr. Charles E. Farnum Trophy—designed to improve tournament participation by club members was won by the Warwick Club. Ed Phillips accepted the award on behalf of the Club.

Additionally, trophies were presented to the State Champions and to the winners of the three other class tournaments sponsored by the Association. Winners of the Jr. Tournament were also honored, and a vote of appreciation went to Miss Dorothy Christiansen and her Committee for an outstanding Jr. Tournament. Special recognition went to Jack Cooper and Alex Mc-Whirter for another successful R.I. Open; and to Roland LaForge, tournament chairman, for a busy year.

Recognition was made of the improvement in Newspaper and Bird Chatter coverage, and Arlene Hilton was asked to continue in the position of Publicity chairman. A Scrapbook on display for the first time came in for much favored comment, and closer liaison between the publicity committee and the individual clubs is looked for in the up-coming season.

Massachusetts B.A.

The newly elected officers for the M.B.A. for the 1962-63 season are as follows: President—Donald J. Lumsden, 64 Pond St., Needham. 1st Vice-Pres.—William J. vonRosenvinge, 26 Crestwood Dr., Wellesly Hills. 2nd Vice-Pres.—Harvey P. Winchester, 864 Summer St., Marshfield. Secretary—Marjorie Moore, 9 Lewis Rd., Winchester. Treasurer—J. Craig Cameron, 22 Manning Rd., Waltham. Directors: Edward W. Martin, Mrs. Edward Moran, William Goodman, Thomas E. Greene, Dr. David Dove, John S. Carder, Mrs. Harold Seavey, Mrs. Cliff Sawyer, Philip Blanchard and Mrs. Joseph Costello.

The very first tournament in Mass. will be the member-guest tourney held at the Maugus Club in Wellesley Nov. 2 and 4. This is an A-D, B-C tourney and has always proven very successful and much fun. Results in the next issue.

Massachusetts this year is planning to have a straight "D" League in inter-club play plus an Open League which would allow two "A" players to play for each team with a "C" player or lower. Jack Carder is in charge of League play this year. More on this in the next issue also.

Region 2 Delaware Valley B.A.

Members of the Dilwyn B.C. are making plans to hold the Eastern Junior Open Badminton Championships during the Christmas Holidays, or early in January. Mr. James Monkman will be the chairman. The tournament will be played at the Springer Junior High School.

Plans are underway to conduct a Delaware Badminton Interscholastic Tournament in 1963 awarding a trophy to the winning school and the individual high scorer.

Endsley P. Fairman is chairman for the Challenger Round to be held at the Brandywine High School on Saturday, April 6, 1963.

Badminton classes for the second year will be offered the student in the Alfred I. duPont School District by senior members of the Dilwyn B.C. This is a P.T.A. sponsored program. The top junior will assist in this program.

Junior Nancy Bender is conducting badminton classes two afternoons a week during the intramural school program at Springer J.H.S. in Wilmington.

Western New York B.A.

Bea Massman, only woman coach on the athletic staff of the Amherst Central H.S.,

successfully guided the Boys' tennis team to victory in 16 consecutive matches. Amherst also won the Western N.Y. sectional title in June. Each member was awarded a Championship Patch and the school received a large trophy. This was the first time Amherst had won this honor in 8 tries; also, this was Bea's first year as the boys' coach. What will she do for an encore?

Region 3 Southern B.A.

1962-63 Officers for the New Orleans Badminton Club are: Pres., Dick Rose-brough; Vice Pres., Fred Estopinal; and Sec.-Treas., Betty Miller.

On August 3rd and 4th, 1962, Inter-City Competition was held in Natchitoches, Louisiana, with players from New Orleans, Dallas, and Natchitoches participating.

On September 22nd, 1962, an informal tournament was held in New Orleans with players attending from Memphis, Tennessee, Dallas and Houston, Texas, Columbus and Vicksburg, Mississippi, Natchitoches, Shreveport and New Orleans, La. Friday night before the tournament, and all day Sunday following it, strenuous competition took place in round robin competition. Relaxation was enjoyed Saturday night with a gay barbecue and swimming party.

The Louisiana Open will be March 1-2, 1963 at Northwestern State College, Natchitoches, La. and will be co-sponsored by the college and the Natchitoches Badminton Club.

The 22nd Annual Southern Badminton Championships will be held in Memphis during the month of March, 1963. All defending champions are expected to be on hand to defend their titles. Wally (of Memphis) states that the Memphis Club plans to go all out to make this the biggest and best in the history of the Southern. Memphis has won the Team Trophy for so many years that it looks as though they will never give it up; however, the grapevine tells us that New Orleans will be in force next Spring exerting every effort to take the Trophy back home in March.

The Louisiana State Tournament will be closed again this year. We hear that badminton activity at Natchitoches is running high. We wish them the best of luck.

The Atlanta Athletic Club is still active; however, many of us have reached the age when we shuffle rather than run and use drop shots rather than smashes—in fact, some of our smashes are, in truth, merely drop shots. But there are a few of us who are younger and we shall bring them with us to Memphis. I feel sure that their presence will be felt.

The S.B.A. would like to invite all who are members of ABA clubs to come and play with us next March. See the next issue of Bird Chatter for the exact dates.

Region 4 Midwest B.A.

Our new officers for the season are: President, Cletus Eli; Vice President, Ron Buck; Sec.-Treasurer, Hans Rogind. They are all doing a marvelous job for us.

Something new is being tried out at Flint B.C. this season—a Round Robin Doubles Tournament (Men's and Women's events only). It sounds like fun and we intend to make it yearly, if the turnout is good.

The Detroit B.C. hosted its 1st Annual Open House, which was a great success and turned out many old and some new faces. Our new officers this season are F. Trifonoff, Pres.; B. Baker, Vice Pres.; R. Petz, Treas.; and M. Trifonoff, Sec'y. We wish to welcome our new members (resulting from our Open House) and also Bill Simon to the Club this year. Bill is one of Don McClean's top juniors from Windsor.

Offutt AFB

The finals of the Offutt Badminton Tourney, in the Championship category, was largely a repeat of the TOP FLIGHT and Second Air Force Badminton Tournaments. Colonel Mason A. Dula survived a blistering attack in the first game of the hnals from Lt. Colonel Elmer Tuck to hold him off 15-10. Colonel Dula then assumed command of the second game, defeating Colonel Tuck 15-5 to win the Headquarters SAC and Base Singles Championship. This makes these two badminton players undisputed winner and runner-up in three badminton tournanemts. In addition to the Base Tourney just completed, Colonel Dula copped the Second Air Force and TOP FLIGHT B.C. singles championships with Colonel Tuck solidly in the runner-up position in both cases. Chief Warrant Officer Raymond G. Scott made it a trio by taking the number three singles slot in the same three tournaments.

Brigadier General William R. Peers teamed up with Colonel Tuck in an attempt to topple Colonel Dula and Chief Warrant Officer Raymond Scott from their number one position on the badminton

Helen Tibbetts 13215 S. Wilton Pl. Gardena, California ladder. The first game was a close one and hard fought ending up with a score of 15-12 for the Dula-Scott combination who went on to win the base doubles championship by winning the second game 15-6. Colonel Dula and CWO Scott added the above attainment to their Second Air Force and TOP FLIGHT B.C. doubles championship. They also were able to garner the Veterans Doubles Consolation in the Southwestern Open held in March of this year at Ponca City, Okla. The play in the open division at this event found the Dula-Scott duo matched with Ralph Chesser and John Sudbury who soundly trounced them 15-6, 15-6. The Offutt pair consoled themselves, however, with the thought that the Chesser-Sudbury team had defeated the world singles champion, Tan Joe Hok, and his partner, by scores of 15-12, 15-6.

Region 5 Southwestern B.A.

The social side is certainly not neglected by the Houston Club as Ogreta Stekoll entertained the members at her home on the occasion of the annual business meeting and election of officers May 27th. Then on June 23rd Jean and Dale Cooper had a patio party with Tan Joe Hok as a special guest with nearly thirty people enjoying Dale's barbecueing. Dale is the mechanical engineer in charge of air-conditioning the Harris County Domed Stadium which will be the home of the Houston Colt 45's.

The Houston B.C. will again host the Annual Fall Open Badminton Tournament at the City of Houston Downtown Recreation Center, November 3 and 4, 1962, with entries from clubs in Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Texas.

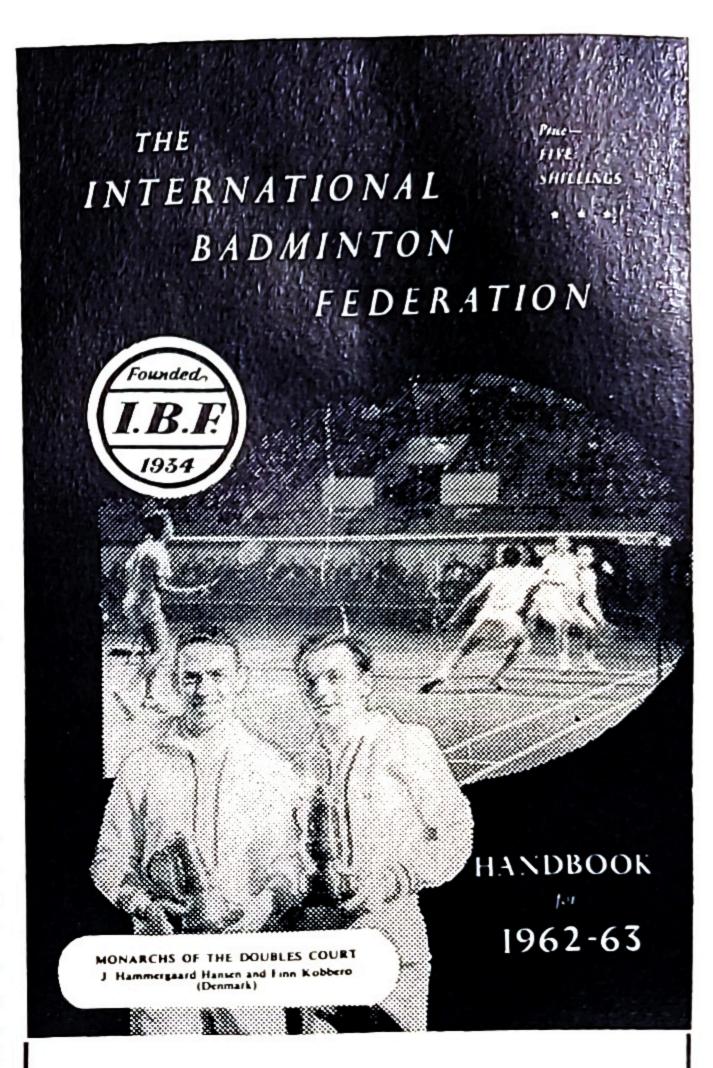

The Southwestern Open, successor to the Texas Open, will be held in Dallas, February 2 and 3, 1963, at the Coliseum, on the campus of SMU. The Dallas B.C. will host the affair in conjunction with S.B.A. President, Dr. John D. Sudbury, and Sec'y-Treas. Ralph Chesser of Ponca City, Okla.

Region 6 Southern California B.A.

Officers of SCBA for 1962-63 are: Pres., Rod Starkey; Vice-Pres., Manuel Armendariz; and Sec'y-Treas., Virginia Hill. Directors will be: Rod Starkey, Virginia Hill, Jack van Praag, Dorothy Parsons, Manuel Armendariz, Al Kirby, Helen Tibbetts, Ray Vening, Waldo Lyon, Babe Pajares and Frank Auxier. Newsletter Editor Helen Tibbetts will continue with her job.

At the August meeting of officers and directors of SCBA, a very interesting report was presented by Marguerite Auxier, chairman of Junior Activities. About 350 form letters had been sent last June to the Physical Education departments of Los Angeles area high schools. Questions ran something like this: Do you have a badminton program? If not, do you want a program? If so, would you like help with a program? Are you interested in exhibitions?

The response was overwhelming much to everyone's surprise. Very few have their own programs and even those indicated they would welcome assistance, exhibitions and/or information. Needless to say, Marguerite and her committee are now working hard on following up on the schools' responses. We hope this is sign of more Junior players on our courts. We'll keep you posted.

The SCBA Junior Championships held last May saw 136 entrants. Rim of the World H.S. at Lake Arrowhead with their 32 entries was a new area participating in this annual event. Highlights of the tourney were Susie Vening being awarded the Scott Sieler Memorial Award for the Outstanding Junior of the playing season; and Ken Fleming's stellar play. Ken won the 15 and U BS; knocked over Bill Pajares in 3 games in the semi event of 18 and U BS, finally losing 6 and 6 to Russ Lyon in the finals. For all final scores, see Tournament Results.
